ABOUT US

The Red Code Community is a world where menstruators excel in all fields, without taboos and stigma to hold them back. We create products and build communities that enable this. Our goal is to make India a period-positive society!

Hurdling Problems

The need of awareness is due to many reasons, to name a few:

- ✓ Lack of awareness about menstruation, menstrual disorders and concerned doctors.
- ✓ Lack of resources such as Sanitary Napkins, Tampons etc.
- ✓ Menstruation considered a taboo- Can't be talked freely about.
- ✓ Myths about the same.

We at The Red Code provide information about menstruation (what, why, how, when), busting taboos i.e. problems faced by women in general like period talks are still considered a taboo in many regions in India, best practices for maintaining hygiene, eco-friendly disposal techniques, menstrual disorders such as dysmenorrhea(Pain), PCOD, PCOS, etc.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Here are some of the Frequently Asked Questions

✓ What is vaginal discharge?

^ Why is menstrual cup better than a tampon?

Great question! There are tons of differences between menstrual cups and tampons. One of the biggest differences between menstrual cups and tampons is the absorbency. Tampons absorb moist from the vagina, even though the periods might be very light. Menstrual cups won't disturb the natural flora and pH at all. With menstrual cup you won't create any trash (you'll get zero waste periods!) and you'll also save a lot of money. .

✓ I'm experiencing itching. What should I do?

✓ What is endometriosis?

✓ Can menstrual cup give me endometriosis?
